

Latin

Latin is currently taught to all boys in Year 8 and is offered as a GCSE option. The language is studied from basics, with due attention being given to the grammatical structures needed to be able to translate both from and into Latin. Study at GCSE level will include both language and original literature elements.