ABOUT JOHN LYON

John Lyon is an academically selective independent day school, based in Harrow-on-the-Hill in North West London. Having educated boys from Harrow and surrounding areas since 1876, John Lyon welcomed its first girls as pupils in September 2021. The School has moved from being a senior school to an all through 3-18 school, following an amalgamation with Quainton Hall in 2021.

Academic excellence is at the very heart of what pupils who study here seek to achieve. Pupils' academic standards and personal development were both rated the highest possible 'excellent' in our most recent ISI school inspection.

The school community transcends cultural difference and exudes and ethos of inclusivity through natural acceptance.

With the opportunity to explore this broad curriculum and gain a solid grounding in all the major academic subjects, pupils work alongside dedicated teachers to develop learning skills, creativity and the ability to fully apply themselves in all areas of life. They perform well from the point they join and go on to achieve excellent results in public examinations at GCSE and A-Level. Most students are rewarded for their hard work by gaining places at leading UK universities, before progressing into the workplace in a huge and varied range of valued professions.

John Lyon pupils also gain from their time outside the classroom. The School has a strong reputation for opportunities and success in Music, Art, Drama and Sport. Add to this an exciting Co-Curricular Programme focusing on a sense of community, achievement and wellbeing, a range of more than 100 extra-curricular activities, and pastoral care that is second to none, a John Lyon education is designed to nurture high-achieving and happy children.

The John Lyon School campus is spread across six buildings at the senior school, the Quainton Hall school site, and a 28-acre mixed sporting facility a short walk away at Sudbury Fields and is part of John Lyon's Foundation which includes the Harrow Family of Schools. We have a clear set of values that are vital to our community. These values shape who we are, what we do and how we do it.

6 Pupils recognise and appreciate that staff have high expectations and allow them sufficient independence to develop self-control and self-motivation.

The Common Room runs a termly programme of wellbeing activities which is well supported by academic and support staff. This includes theatre trips, celebratory meals, yoga, charity quiz nights and fixtures in archery, football, cricket, hockey and golf.

Pupils have outstanding levels of competency in information and communication technology (ICT) and its application to other areas of learning.

THE DEPARTMENTS

The department is staffed by teachers with a background across Economics, Politics and Business. This post arises as the numbers of students opting to take these subjects continues to expand.

The Economics department expects all students to achieve high A-Level grades and teaching staff work with many students interested in developing their studies beyond the A-Level specification through research for their EPQ, for example. The subject has a strong tradition of enabling students to reach leading universities to study Economics-related degrees, including the University of Cambridge, LSE, Warwick and UCL in recent years. Students are strongly encouraged to enter external Economics essay prize competitions and to develop and deepen their interests in connections made with other fields of study. Economics students present their work to the broader student body at regular lunchtime symposia. Economics teachers are encouraged to develop their own interest in the subject and pass this on to students. The Economics department is an intellectually stimulating environment in which to work and the majority of students are keen to take their study of Economics to a higher level.

Pupils demonstrate an excellent grasp of numeracy as they confidently apply their numerical knowledge in mathematics and in other subjects.

The Business department embraces the extra-curricular side of the subject. In the last few years the department has been involved in many programmes and initiatives such as Young Enterprise, Dragon's Den,TfL Innovate, BASE Challenge,The London Institute of Banking & Finance Student Investor Challenge as well as running a very successful Business Society. Organised by both pupils and staff, they have attracted leading speakers from both higher education and business.

A-Level results at both subjects are strong with over a third of candidates achieving A*-A in Economics and over a half of candidates achieving A*-B in Business in the Summer 2022.
