

STEAM SCHOLARSHIP

Application Form

STEAM is a subject that integrates the Arts and the STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Art) subjects to create, innovate, and work on solutions to real-life problems.

The new STEAM Laboratory and STEAM Makerspace offer an incredible range of opportunities to students, such as 3D modelling, 3D printing, soldering, laser cutting and Robotics. STEAM scholars will be expected to be excited at the prospect of being involved in such projects,

A STEAM Scholar will:

- Already have a passion for Science
- Show great enthusiasm for becoming actively involved in the School's STEAM projects

A STEAM Scholar at John Lyon will be expected to:

- Be fully involved in the weekly extra-curricular STEAM activities, such as the Robotics and CREST clubs.
- Take part in the termly STEAM competitions. Past STEAM competitions have involved building spaghetti bridges, balloon cars and cardboard chairs.
- Set an example to other pupils through involvement in STEAM activities.
- Meet the Head of STEAM termly to review progress.
